On this date, the Court considered the United States' Motion for a Protective Order Under Rule 16(d)(1). The Court finds that the United States has shown "good cause" for the issuance of the proposed Protective Order. Accordingly, the Court GRANTS the United States' motion and enters the following order:

IT IS ORDERED that given the sensitive nature of the discovery material, the dissemination of any discovery materials provided in this case, to any person other than the Attorneys of Record for the Defendant, is prohibited. For purposes of this order, Attorneys of Record includes any defense investigator, defense expert, and/or support staff working at the direction of the Attorney of Record; such persons are likewise bound by the restraints of this order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that no Attorney of Record in the above-captioned cause shall release any discovery to any person, including, but not limited to, the Defendants' family members and associates. In the event any written or electronic discovery is provided to the defense, attorneys may show discovery to their client(s) and may discuss the information with their client(s); however, attorneys may not reproduce or disseminate any discovery, or copies of discovery to anyone, including the client.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if any Attorney of Record is substituted in this cause, all discovery materials, including copies thereof, shall immediately be returned to counsel of record for the United States, who will be obligated to provide a copy of the discovery materials to new counsel upon new counsel acknowledging his or her obligations under this Order.

Finally, IT IS ORDERED that a copy of this Order shall be furnished to counsel of record in this case and any successive counsel of record who enter an appearance after the date of this Order.

SIGNED AND ENTERED this 16th day of August, 2024.
